Professor Rules Campbell Out Of Cambrian Park Annexation Plans

Civic Leaders In Campbell Consider Annexation To Be Costly Venture At Present

Reaction yesterday to asserted stand by Dr. Edward Shaw that Campbell should not be considered by Cambrian Park in any move toward annexation brought a storm of protests here. The self-styled professional economist after outlining what he termed factual presentation of advantages and disadvantages of incorporation said in Cambrian Park Tuesday night that Campbell is not in a financial position to take on any new area.

When questioned by the Press yesterday, Dr. Shaw declined to give a specific reason for this and when asked on what authority he based his opinion he replied, "they are not for publication". Asked if he had made a study of the Campbell area he admitted he started but had given it up because "factors which might lead to successful annexation to Campbell are not feasible at this time."

Here are unofficial comments by various civic leaders of Campbell:

Mayor Richard Morton:

Annexation of Cambrian Park to the city of Campbell as far as Campbell is concerned would be financially disastrous. We'd double the population, all right, we'd make more money from gas tax allocations, but not from liquor taxes. We would lose on PG&E franchises. There would be extra income for the city of Campbell, but the city expenditures would more than double.

1. There is no concentration of high taxable property in Cambrian Park. Homes are mostly veteran financed.

2. Of the two approaches to Cambrian Park from Campbell, along Casey Road, and Union Avenue, the distance is too great. The assessed value just isn't there to make for an advantage to Campbell on taxable property.

3. Three police cars would have to be on duty at all times, upkeep, salaries, mileage expenses would triple.

4. Where the city of Campbell now has a completely equipped fire department in a fire house which cost the city nothing, it would have to incur great expense to build a new fire station. It would have to be staffed and equipped. In all probability the city would have to build and equip TWO new fire stations, and three separate sets of equipment. When the Cambrian Park area was subdivided fire responsibility was in charge of the county Central Fire district which has 2,000 gallon tankers for equipment, because there are no fire hydrants in Cambrian Park. Campbell's fire equipment, the best there is, has no tanks and relies on hydrants for its water source. The city would have to install fire hydrants throughout the Cambrian Park area at an approximate cost of $190 apiece. In addition it would have to enlarge the existing water mains, and subsidize the water company to put in the bigger mains.

5. Cambrian Park has standard streets. Campbell would have to incur great expense to undertake a costly maintenance program. As far as the danger of becoming a suburban town of San Jose, Morton says we are at that already, and there would be no further danger if San Jose annexed Cambrian Park. San Jose already abuts the city at two locations. Morton doesn't think Campbell's natural growth is that way anyhow. He says we will grow to the south and possibly the north and northwest.

Oliver Jensen, building inspector, councilman, says:

When a city annexes a subdivision, there is no profit in it tax-wise, and the city takes on more responsibility and expense. It is out of balance. If we annexed Cambrian Park, we would build up big departments here, such as fire, police, public works, just to take care of that area, and we would get very little return. We would be out of balance. We are going along fine now, the city is in good financial shape, and we are in balance with what we've got—low tax rate, income exceeding outgo, etc.

Jensen cited the city of Santa Clara and Milpitas as boom towns because of the proportion of in-

San Jose Or Los Gatos Might Accept Area By Annexation Under Specific Conditions

Dr. Edward Shaw of the San Jose State College Economics Department slanted his views Tuesday evening toward San Jose and Los Gatos in any move toward annexation of Cambrian Park, contending that Campbell is out of the picture because of not being in the financial position to take on new areas. He attempted to list services which San Jose and Los Gatos could provide in a talk before the Cambrian Improvement Association.

Shaw indicated that drainage was an important factor in any decision toward annexation, pointing out that the north valley is a flood area and as subdivisions increase the problem is more intense. A drainage district might solve matters. He said both San Jose and Los Gatos are inclined to share and perhaps provide branch facilities for police, fire, library and similar services. In a question and answer period he indicated that Cambrian Park might have more political influence in Los Gatos as annexation would virtually double the population of Los Gatos. With ten others he had taken a poll of 200 Cambrian residents who by 4 1/2 to 1 vote were in favor of annexing to Los Gatos rather than San Jose.

On Tuesday, February 9, the final report will be made by Shaw and will deal with a study of tax rates, following which Lee Diehl, an attorney will make a plea for annexing to San Jose while John McDevitt will make the appeal for Los Gatos.

Funeral Today For A. Jacobson, Polio Victim

Final services will be held at two o'clock this afternoon by Darling-Fischer and Krug from First Methodist Church in Campbell, corner of First Street and Campbell avenue for Arthur Jacobson Jr., of 58 Jane Ann Way, who died of polio Monday at County Hospital after being stricken with the disease January 16. He was 29 years old and leaves his wife, Earla Jacobson and small son, William Jacobson. Other surviving relatives include a sister, Marian Jacobson, and his parents Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jacobson Sr., all of Campbell.

Following services at the local chapel and church, interment will take place at Oak Hill Memorial Park. Relatives said friends who wish may contribute to the Polio Research Foundation, in lieu of flowers.

Jacobson was a graduate of the Campbell grammar and Campbell Union High School, and was an active member of the Campbell Lions Club and of the First Methodist Church of Campbell. He was a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and a member of its alumni. He had been employed as a salesman for the American Forest Products and was a member of the Society of American Foresters.

Gene Andres Is Rotary Club Guest Speaker

Gene C. Andres, personnel supervisor, Continental Can Company, was Rotary guest speaker at the regular meeting Monday night at TOOF Hall in Campbell. He supplemented his talk on "packaging" with a short color film. Cel Gervas, program chairman for the meeting next Monday announced that Charles Silvera, catcher for the New York Yankees will be the guest speaker. His talk will be on "baseball."

Announcements at the last meeting concerned the next club assembly to be held February 8 at 7:30 p. m. at Villa Felice, the meeting of Rotary wives scheduled for Hawaiian Gardens in the near future, the Club anniversary party set for March 12, with further details to be announced, and the next Tri-Club meeting of Campbell Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs scheduled for May 11 at 7 p. m.

"PAPPY" WALDORF TO TALK AT AWARDS DINNER HERE THURSDAY

Sparked by the appearance of Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, coach of the University of California football team, an awards dinner is to be held next Thursday evening in the Campbell High School cafeteria at which members of the Campbell team will receive their letters. Campbell gridders were in a tie for first place honors with the Fremont high school. Bill Means is to be program chairman at the awards dinner Thursday.

Waldorf is one of the most important figures in collegiate football today. He is past president of the National Coaches Association, former winner of the "Coach of the Year" honors, a winning head coach for 26 years, and a strong speaker in behalf of football. He came to the University of California in 1947 when the school had not had a winning team for nine years. In his first year the Golden Bears won nine games and lost one. Then the bears won three consecutive Coast conference titles.

Means said there are but 200 seats available for this dinner and there are but a few left for anyone wishing to attend.

AREA-OF-INFLUENCE AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO BY SCHOOLS HERE

An area-of-influence agreement was entered into this week by the Campbell Union High School and the Cambrian Elementary School district with the San Jose Unified School District, involving differences over boundaries of school districts in annexation areas. The Campbell High and Cambrian Elementary schools indicate their suit against the South Willow Glen annexation to San Jose will be withdrawn.

Dollar Days To Be Featured In Campbell Soon

There will be bargains galore in Campbell during dollar days Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 4, 5, 6 according to plans now under way.

Dollar days are always popular in Campbell and merchants are preparing for a record turn over in view of special bargain offerings. Watch the Press for details next Thursday.

Chairman of the dollar days committee is Cel Gervas with Ann Levin, Helen DeRose, Emily McConnell, Edith Larkin and Marion DeRose as committee members.

Business Licenses Delinquent If Not Paid By Feb. 1

Business licenses if not paid by five o'clock Monday afternoon will be delinquent, according to Dorothy Trevelyan, city clerk. To date a little over sixty per cent of the license fees have been paid.

Last year the city collected license fees from 21 firms while this year it is expected 250 fees will be collected.

Kiwanians Hear Story Of German Rehabilitation

The spiritual recovery of Germany was a contributing factor to its economic recovery, according to A. P. Hamann, San Jose manager in a talk Tuesday noon before the Campbell Kiwanis Club. He told of deliberate planning by government leaders at a time when eighty per cent of industrial properties, home and other structures had been leveled by war, a repetition of circumstances faced by other countries which never had the stamina to recover.

The speaker contended that the sell out of Chang Kai Shek and recognition of Russia were contributing factors to China being taken over by the Reds and was emphatic in a belief that the ideals of democracy will endure any fight for survivorship with communism. Program chairman was Joseph Gomes, city councilman.

Next meeting of the club will be on Thursday evening at the High School cafeteria, featuring the awards dinner at which coach Pappy Waldorf of the University of California will be the speaker of the evening.

Group Seeks To Centralize Old Settler Day Activities

Efforts to centralize activities of the Old Settler Days to the high school grounds, except for the parade, were made in planning reports by committee chairmen reporting at a meeting Tuesday presided over by Laurance Hill, chairman. Improvising a booth anywhere except on the prescribed area will mean that the operator will have to apply for a license from the city clerk.

Sale of food at the carnival will be permitted if the food is to be taken home. Type of games permitted at the carnival will be those of skill and within the approved list to be requested of the district attorney.

Interest already is keen in the King and Queen contests at both the high school and the Elementary schools. Separate floats are to be made at the high school for both royalty pairs and the club or organization selling the most number of tickets will have its king or queen qualify for the honors. Deadline is February 18th.

For the first time in many years a reviewing stand is to be reserved for the Old Timers so that it will not be necessary for any to ride in the parade.

Ira Grim, parade committee chairman said that the number of applications for floats is already ahead of last year's record of the same date, and predicted that the parade would be an outstanding achievement.

Old Timers Vie With Youngsters Here For Tonsorial Supremacy

Pomaded mustachios, extra-length sideburns with curled terminals and cultivated goatees are beginning to appear on the streets of Campbell today in preparation for the Whiskerino contest on Old Settlers' Day, February 22nd. Judge Martin Walsh is selling dude permits at one buck each for men wanting to remain clean shaven.

Those entering the contest had to check in first at local barber shops and among those registered for the event are Ray McVea, Glen Knowles, Joe Raymond, Denver Miranda, Cy Penhall, Forrest Reece, Charles Wightman, Ed Blackman, Lee Bernardi, and Budd Levenberg.

These old-timers seek to outdo youngsters in tonsorial art. In the meantime, barbers here are turning out teen-agers resplendent in wave-breaking duck-tail D. A. haircuts over their Mr. B. collars, some in five-way jackets, rogue pants, Mr. C. shirts or the jungle jacket. This is the 62nd annual old-timer day celebration in Campbell.

CHARGIN AGAIN HEADS PLANNERS

John Chargin was re-elected chairman of the Campbell Planning Commission, Hollis Logue as vice president and Homer Hyde as secretary at the regular meeting of the group Thursday evening. Commissioner Kenneth Priestley was re-appointed to a four year term.

Phillips Laurence, of 311 Esther Avenue was informed he would need a variance to construct an additional room to an existing dwelling when he informed the commission that the finished structure would be three feet from the property line.

February 18 was the date set as the time of hearing for a resolution of Intention to amend certain sections of the Zoning Ordinance. William Carey of 90 Gillman Avenue was informed by the commission that he would require a use permit for construction on his property zoned M-1 in front and M-2 in back.

Jules Cuc explained at the last meeting a letter and map sent to the Planning Commission from Wilkinson Construction company protesting the planning commission's recommendation for widening Campbell avenue and putting in curbs and sidewalks in front of property owned by A. G. Warning Sr., and A. G. Warning, Jr., as this is not part of the proposed subdivision and it would not be economically possible, Cuc said, for the builders to absorb costs of the work.

Commissioner Logue moved and it was adopted that conditions set forth at the last meeting January 7, stand, with the exception of paving in front of the A. G. Warning subdivision.

In 1903, a Redwood tree was planted at Winchester and Campbell avenue on May 11 by President Theodore Roosevelt.

Lost Culvert Found Under Hamilton Ave.

With the filing of a written application from the Chamber of Commerce as the sponsoring organization, the city council will probably give the all-clear signal for staging the Old Timers' Days on February 19, 20, 21, 22 according to action taken at the council meeting Monday evening.

The sponsoring group would have to be responsible that those operating booths are civic or charitable groups so that proceeds are for a worthy cause rather than for individual gains and they will have to give the route proposed and the time for the parade. This, according to an opinion from City Attorney Joseph Bonacina and reports by Councilmen James Arends and Oliver Jensen, will simplify issuance of a business permit within provisions of the licensing ordinance. Individuals expecting to operate a booth would have to contact the city clerk for a license.

Bonacina was not certain about a permit for hanging a banner across one of the main thoroughfares. This is to be further considered by the Council on receipt of the written application.

LeRoy Black, public works superintendent reported that he had located a ten inch culvert under Hamilton avenue east of the Winchester intersection and that it had been cleared so as to carry off impounded waters successfully.

Councilman J. M. Dahl reported a business being operated in a residential area and the matter was referred to the police department for confirmation and enforcement of the licensing ordinance.

Moreland District To Discuss Reports In Panel Meeting

Moreland District Teachers Association will hold an evening meeting, February 4, at 8 p. m. in Moreland School Cafeteria to consider the topic of report cards and reporting to parents. Chief speaker will be Dr. Lola Say Gordon, general supervisor from the County Superintendent of Schools office.

She will act as moderator of a panel discussion to include interested parents and faculty members, Mrs. Gussie M. Baker, Moreland principal said today.

Chairman of the meeting will be Mrs. Ralph Brown.

All parents of the district are especially invited to attend, school officials said, to attend and to contribute ideas, and to participate in the discussion.

Gaines Traylor Pastor Of Cambrian Baptist

Rev. Gaines Traylor, from Boaz, Alabama, a 1953 graduate of Howard College, Southern Baptist School in Birmingham, is pastor of the newly-activated Cambrian Park Baptist Church, temporarily located on Camden avenue, near Union.

Rev. Traylor, whose last pastorate was Boaz, Alabama, said in an interview with the PRESS this week, that plans have been drawn for the first unit of a new church to be built at the intersection of Camden and Union, across from the site of soon-to-be-constructed Campbell Union High School No. two, bonds for which were voted in December.

The first unit of the new church is proposed to consist of an educational unit. Completed building, as planned by architect Ray White will house an auditorium seating 500, in a T-shaped structure.

Church will be financed by issuing 5% bonds, the pastor said. The new pastor and his wife, Patricia Gilley Traylor, will make their home in the area.

POLIO CLAIMS ANOTHER LIFE

Polio claimed the life of a young father and home maker in Campbell this week, just a few days after he was stricken. Arthur Jacobson was 29, married, the father of a small son. He took an active part in community life of Campbell as a member of the Lions Club and of the First Methodist Church. He had been graduated with honors from the Campbell Grammar School and the Campbell Union High School, later receiving his degree from the University of California.

His loss to the community is a great one for he was the exemplification of the finest in manhood. Polio, the dreaded disease has struck again, unexpectedly and without warning.

DANGER AT THE CROSSROADS

The Casey Road intersection with Winchester avenue has become extremely hazardous lately for cars traveling at excessive speeds. Twice within the last month cars have gone out of control there and piled into a nearby orchard resulting in death to one of the occupants and badly damaging both cars involved.

According to Robert Locke, police chief, some of the hazard might be alleviated by banking the road, but that a more practical solution might be in reducing the speed limit. The limit there today is 55 miles per hour and the average motorist cannot safely make the turn traveling faster than 45 miles per hour. A thirty-five mile-an-hour speed limit would be safe, according to the chief.

Casey Road makes a right angle turn at the Camden avenue intersection but eventually it is to continue and intersect at Sunnyside avenue according to tentative plans.

THE FORCES OF NATURE

California chrysanthemum growers are going to use tear gas to wipe out a fungus disease. They feel that thousands of dollars will be saved through this control. The disease, starting from the roots, goes up the stem causing the flower head to droop and wither. Use of tear gas to keep flower heads up climaxes six years of research at the University of California. They outlawed tear gas in warfare and now they have found a good use for it even if but to keep the heads of flowers up. Some day they will find good uses for atomic power. Nature never meant for either to be destructive forces forever.

DARK DAYS FOR RED TURNS

The announcement by the Secretary of Defense Charles Wilson that the twenty-one American soldiers in Korea who refused returning to democracy, are to be dishonorably discharged, is very much as it should be. Surely anyone making a decision such as made by any of these prisoners is without honor to their homeland. If they never come back to American shores again it will be soon enough. If any do return to United States control area, they can petition for a review of their case and the army secretary has full authority to reverse the dishonorable discharge findings. That seems to be the extent of justice in these United States and it might be well for them to make comparison with it in the red horizon.

The fellow who curtails buying and looks for a recession won't do much business. The fellow who plans ahead on sound business lines, will get the business and there will be plenty of it in 1954.

PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION

In one of the national magazines this week is an article on the effect of progressive education on the new America. It is well worth reading because, from a nation-wide survey, some of the students in the advanced classes do not know how to spell, add or do many of the fundamentals taught in the schools of an earlier generation. Computations today have become mechanized to such an extent that grandpa couldn't cope with modern problems by his method. It is a changed era. Grandpa knew how to spell "cat" but today's youngster might want to see a picture of the word first, and then when he tries to spell it out on paper, he might put down "pussy" instead.

ON COMIC BOOKS AND EDUCATION

From England comes word that Dr. Michael Lewis, director of Nottingham University's Institute of Education, has defended comics as an aid in teaching children to read and enlarging their vocabularies. Dr. Lewis told a teacher's conference group children are often encouraged to read other books by the adventurous strips.

Dr. Lewis said that twenty per cent of the words in comic strips are new words to children and therefore, the strips are conducive to enlarged vocabularies. He said only six per cent of the words were slang or misspelled. Dr. Lewis also found modern children more intelligent than their predecessors and claimed that radio and television were encouraging children to read more about things they saw or heard through these media.

No doubt the country's children will be delighted by this report, although it must be noted that the sensational and degrading comic books, so often seen on the U. S. newsstands, are not as prevalent in Great Britain. Nevertheless, the words of the University professor are a defense of comics, which are firmly entrenched in American life, anyhow, and are encouraging to those who have felt that the effects of comics on children are detrimental.

SNOW FLAKES dashed against windshields of cars moving about the streets of Campbell on Sunday, melting quickly, but the hillsides at Saratoga remained white on Monday. . . some fruit trees on San Tomas Aquino Road near Rincon avenue had a few white blossoms out prematurely in contrast with the white mantle of snow on the nearby hills. . . my own garden in Campbell has some fresh daphne blooms, pansies and Japonica or flowering quince and I have seen spirea and jonquills out in some of the other gardens, with carnations, roses, chrysanthemums, fuchsias and other blooms still in color after a long, blooming season.

BEST BLOOMING TOWN in America is the way one nurseryman described Campbell in an ad appearing in last week's Press, and we're for him all the way. . . tells about the kwanzan trees which many of the home owners are planting in their gardens and which the Garden Club has made available to schools. . . motto of the sales pitch is to "let's make Campbell the best blooming town in America" to which we gladly say, "bravo!" . . . there should be a double meaning to the slogan.

FOR NAMES the Campbell Union High School board is in a receptive mood for a word to properly identify the new high school branch soon to be started in Cambrian Park, and the Press will be glad to receive suggestions and turn them over to the board for a decision. . . it is a part of the Campbell district so a name of some famous American might be in order. . . first names suggested so far have been Blossomridge High School and of course Cambrian High School. . . what's yours?

VASONA JUNCTION west of town is becoming quite an important stop for the Southern Pacific's commuter train on its once a day trip between Los Gatos and San Francisco. . . seems that many of those getting on and off at Vasona have jobs in Los Altos and have found this a good schedule for them. . . traffic from San Francisco and Los Gatos has been falling off some, according to Louis Chess, general passenger agent for Southern Pacific only about fifteen now making the entire trip daily. . . the line at one time went over the hills to Felton and before buses and the family car become so popular, Southern Pacific ran four or five trains on a single holiday over the line, according to Chess.

AFRICA is to be the destination starting next week of the Floyd Thomas family who leave by air Tuesday from San Francisco to New York then by boat to England and on down to the Gold Coast of Africa where they will remain for two years. . . "if you want a delightful few minutes, ask Diana to tell of some of her adventures. She takes you right back to Africa and it sounds more realistic than King Solomon's Mines. . . elephants, snakes, lions, alligators, and baboons have been every day sights for her when she was in Africa before." . . Diana is the oldest of three children whose parents are missionaries residing until Tuesday at 314 Rutland avenue in San Jose. . . this is their third trip to Africa.

This column attempts to acquaint Campbell residents with the background of most of its leading citizens, to make for a greater interest in the activities of the Campbell area.

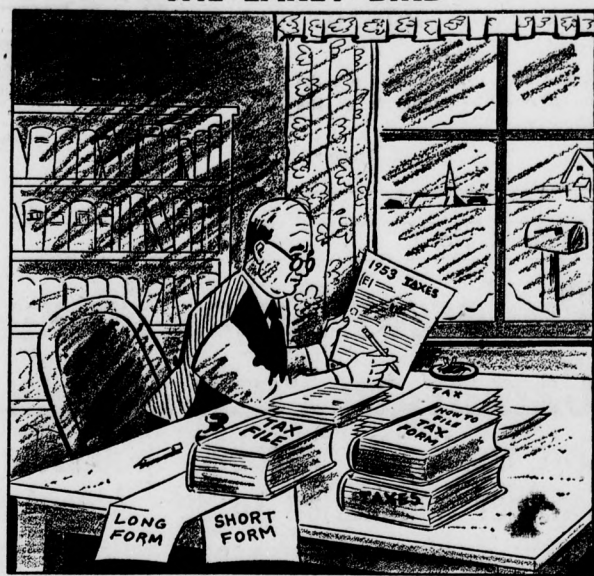

Pictures from the files of the Campbell Press will be drawn, by lot, for the first of the articles. When this supply is exhausted, pictures of newer residents will be taken, to run in conjunction with stories.

Campbell avenue jeweler, Verle Grizzle, president of Campbell Chamber of Commerce, member of Campbell Lions Club, erstwhile hunter, fisherman, and flyer, while born in Nebraska, came to Campbell when he was 10 weeks old. He has been here ever since, and lives with his wife, Betty, a registered nurse, and daughter, Valerie, 7, at 49 Poplar avenue.

Verle's father, Orrie Grizzle, came to Campbell with his family in 1902, and now operates a barbershop on Campbell avenue. Verle has an aunt, Winnie, and uncle, Claude, who also live in Campbell. Grizzle opened his jewelry shop next to his father's barbershop in 1951, following four years in the South Pacific during World War II.

Grizzle, a former employee of Santa Clara County Hospital pharmacy, spent most of his time in the South Pacific in parasitology, which he explained as "fighting mosquitos". Grizzle attended local grammar and high schools and attended San Jose State College, where he majored in business administration. Before entering the service he served as a medical detail man for a pharmaceutical concern operating in the northern part of the state. In his jewelry shop Verle has a flexible screwdriver, which he in-

Bethel Officers Preside At Meet For First Time

New officers of Bethel 174 of the International Order of Job's Daughters of Campbell presided over their first meeting on January 23 in the afternoon.

Miss Claire McCaul was installed Senior Princess and was vested with the honors of her station, the purple cape and crown. After the simple ceremony, the meeting was continued in regular manner.

A snow trip was discussed and plans were made to have it on Saturday, January 30. The girls are to prepare a sack lunch and meet at the I. O. O. F. hall in Campbell at 5 a. m.

A float for the "Old Settlers' Day" parade was also discussed and plans were made to have a booth to sell cake, hot chocolate and coffee. Committee's were appointed and the girls made preparations for the big day. The purpose of the Cake Sale is to make money for the Job's Daughter's Educational Fund.

Plans for later in the term were discussed briefly and the meeting was closed in the regular manner.

The next meeting will be initiation and inspection on February 13 at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Thelma Bramley, Deputy for the Bethel will be honored.

Family Dinner, Bingo Party Set For Rosemary

The Rosemary Home and School Club, for its second annual big fund raising effort, will stage a family dinner party and bingo game for the entire community.

President Verdun Romer announces that the affair will be held on the regular monthly meeting night, Tuesday, February 9th, in the multi-purpose room of Rosemary School, beginning with the dinner at 6:30.

General chairman of the evening, Donald Gilbert, is being assisted by George Skillman and Jack Worden, who are rounding up many gifts from Campbell area merchants, which will be awarded during the evening's activities.

Mrs. L. O. Faulkner, in charge of the menu planning and dinner preparation, is being assisted by Mrs. Boyd C. Rappe, Mrs. Ren Orsi, Mrs. Howard Gilbert, and Mrs. E. W. Swan. Mrs. Paul Welsh, with a group of fourteen mothers, will plan and execute the serving of the large crowd anticipated.

Mrs. Anton Lobrovich, aided by Mrs. Neal Royer and Mrs. Dan Furtado, are busily planning for the decorating of the room and dinner tables in the "Hearts and Flowers" valentine theme.

Ticket sales for the dinner are being handled through the students of Rosemary with the assistance of their teachers and mothers, with a special treat being planned for the class selling the greatest number.

Proceeds of the evening's activities are being used to complete the special projects of the Home and School Club including added ground equipment, landscaping, and improvement of playground areas of the school.

Mrs. Lawrence Evans, nursery chairman of the club is making special plans for the care and entertainment of students and preschoolers as the bingo game progresses.

The trouble with rain is it gets on your windshield, so you can't see out, and also it makes the road slippery. Particularly in the winter-time, when it's apt to freeze. It's easy to go slow when it rains. All you do is lift up a little on the accelerator. You're likely to live longer that way.

HI-LITES

by Bob Olson

In this week's assembly, all Campbell high school students were a part of the midyear installation of student body officers. It was interesting to the adults in the room to sit back and see how well today's young people can conduct themselves in a public meeting.
Their combination of youthful humor and mature savoir faire reminded most of us of our own high school careers. But we were gawky and they're so smooth; we were so self-conscious, and they're so self-assured.

Take Don Davis, for example.
He stepped down from his position as student body president with the aplomb of a Democrat leaving Washington. He held the assembly in the palm of his hand because of clever tightrope walk between seriousness and laughter, even while admitting that being high school
president was the "biggest thrill"
of his life and "one he'll never forget."

And though only a sixteen year old, ex-student manager, Marlene Langen is already an "amazing woman", to quote one of her male admirers. (But then many of us believe that any female is amazing who is able to speak in public without being as obnoxious as Hedda Hopper.) Marlene spoke of the accomplishments of "their administration." Certainly, as she said, this council will long be remembered for its work on the bond campaign, the most successful student body card sale in the school's history, the Korean clothing campaign, March of Dimes drive, blanket collection, clean-up drive, new school hymn, and revised constitution, and for sponsoring a host of other successful student body activities with an enthusiasm that has been an inspiration to us all.

The three new council members also exhibit this maturity. All three fellows came into our history classes to speak last week, and all three are boys any man would be proud to call son. Dick Kolte is what most of us label a "typical adolescent." He is tall and lanky, always has a voracious appetite with a complexion which makes him look as though he just returned from a dude ranch in Arizona. His legs are too long for his tight-fitting blue jeans and evidence socks of a hue luminous even by night. Dick is one of Mr. Wallace's bright lights in English Drama. He should be, coming from a family of avid readers. His mother is a teacher in San Jose, his father suburban dealer for THE NEWS, and he has one sister who is a freshman here in high school and three others in eighth, fourth, and second grades.
He says that he is overwhelmed by his new job but that "with so many fine people to work with, we can't fail to do a good job." Dick's real love is his eight by ten shop where he works on radios. He says that "there's usually smoke coming out from the things I blow up there." After high school he hopes to earn an engineering degree at the University of California. Dick sincerely believes that "our school government and activities are second to none in the state and that no other school even comes close when we speak of school spirit."

Another of the new boy council members is tall, dark, and handsome Tony Schraub. In the classroom he seems to be quiet and rather static, but on the athletic field he becomes a force "to be reckoned with." You can see him in action in our big championship contending basketball game, at James Lick High tomorrow night.
Coach Robinson is glad to have a change of zone to M-2 on property lying in the creek bottom of the Los Gatos Creek at the crossing of Farley Road.

ATTEST: RICHARD OLSON,

Clerk of the Board of Supervisors

Pub. Jan. 28, 1954.

Eugene Jones
Dies In San Jose

Eugene F. Jones, 79, a retired farmer, who lived with his son,
Elmer F. Jones, of 201 Cherry Lane, Campbell for the past three years, died Saturday in San Jose.
He is survived by a son, Elmer F. Jones, of Campbell, and a daughter, Mary Ann Jones, of Odell, Illinois.

Local arrangements were under the direction of Darling-Fischer and Krug Memorial Chapel.

Tony back after Schraub has just recovered from a week of the flu. Tony admires all our coaches and has a good word for other faculty members too. As he puts it, "Where else will you find younger teachers or better teaching?" Like Dick, Tony hopes to end up an engineer.

Third newly elected council member is Gary Lukehart, a smoothly complexioned, sandy-haired, broad-shouldered athlete who is built like a football lineman, with feet as big as his eyes are blue. Gary is well known for his work as right tackle on our two championship football teams
and for his work with Track Coach Morgan and the 440. Gary is looking forward to the day he'll head
his own roofing and insulation business, already working for his father in this capacity on weekends. He has two idols who serve as inspirations to him: his brother
in the U. S. Coast Guard, and Mr.
Klassen, his teacher in Business Law. Lukehart's credo is one we might all follow, "I work until the job is done, improving anything needing improvement."

Some five hundred Campbellites will trek to James Lick High tomorrow night for the SCVAL "Game of the Year." The school is running over two busloads of rooters, all clad in white tops and all full of the winning spirit. Even with the way our center, Tommy Hansen, has been ringing the hoop, Lick will prove hard to lick at home. If our Bucs are able to squeeze out this important victory, they'll be well on their way towards another SCVAL basketball championship.

Campbell High means many things to many people. To some eighty-three boys, it means wrestling after school and working toward tournaments like the one we lost by a hair at San Jose High last Saturday. We sat in on one of their practice sessions the other night and were impressed with the steam-bath qualities of the room.
We lost five pounds just watching our sleek young Adonises roll through their somersaults and callesthenics. Worth a trip to the dance studio to watch them work out, is a look at their assistant coach, Richard Francis, now helping out head wrestling coach, Ken Duddridge. Francis is a handsome 177 pound specimen of solid muscle who recently won a place in the Pacific Coast Championships.
There was a time when people thought that wrestlers were big,
dumb, and burly, but the fellows
we interviewed assured us that strength, speed, and brains are much more valuable attributes. It must take sticktoitiveness too.
Sometimes, a six minute league
match can seem like an hour.

Mr. John Meischke kicked off his annual Magazine Drive today.
From now until February 9th all the high school Juniors will be competing three ways to sell subscriptions: (1) Against each other,
for the greatest salesman may win
an all expense paid trip to Hollywood, besides many lesser opportunities in noontime drawing, (2)
Against other classes, for the class selling most magazines will receive $15.00 toward a class party, and (3) Against this year's seniors, who, last year as Juniors, sold some $5000 worth, breaking all U.
S. records for the Curtis Publishing Company. You will no doubt soon receive an opportunity to aid one of this year's super salesmen.

We hope to see all the fathers of the community out attending the first Campbell High School Dad's Club Meeting in the school library next Monday night at 7:30. We need the oak as well as the acorn.

"Triple-duty" truck speeds pole-setting

Telephone poles now go up faster than ever, thanks to the specially designed truck at right. Equipped with a fastrotary digger, a long arm, and a winch line, the "triple-duty" truck digs pole holes, sets in the poles, and straightens them... all in a jiffy. This versatile vehicle also has many other jobs, including salvaging used wire on its special reel. We're using it in many places throughout the Pacific West today. Developments like the "triple-duty" truck help us provide you with more service, good service, at the lowest possible cost. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

You Can Call All the Way to New York City
for Only $2.50 plus tax

More and more people here in the Pacific West are finding out what a value long distance telephone service is... to keep contact with friends and relatives in distant places, to get business affairs handled quickly.

One reason — it costs so little to call. You can now talk for three minutes, day station call, all the way to New York for only $2.50 plus tax. And your calls over shorter distances—like Chicago or Salt Lake, or up and down the Coast, naturally are even lower.

And here's a tip about long distance calling. You'll be surprised at how much you can say in three minutes if you'll prepare your notes beforehand and make notes while you talk.

Today, a long distance call is surely one of the best buys you can make. Pacific Telephone.

Little League Clinic Forms To Meet Thursday

Ken Robison, Campbell Union High School recreational director said today that a series of meetings to recruit and train men in the Campbell area interested in Little League Baseball will be held in room 37 of Campbell High School. First meeting is scheduled for 7:30 this evening.

Fred Imhoff, well-known sports expert, Walter Alladio and Robison will form a committee to promote interest in the little leaguers in this area.

Don Silva, former Pacific Coast League umpire and now associated with the American Association league in the East will be the instructor, according to Robison.

The High School Recreation area Little League is associated with the National Little League set-up, Robison said.

Practice sessions for little league teams will not begin until April. Robison said the clinic is a training period for umpires and managers and to acquaint fans, coaches and managers with the aims and purposes of the league.

Robison said the Campbell Union High School Recreation District this year will be divided into two parts, one for each section of the city. The Northern District will include four baseball teams, as will the Southern district, he said.

Last year the district had one district with teams from the Campbell Merchants Stamp Association and Western Gravel participating.

Campbell Bucs In Upset Win Over Willow Glen Five

Campbell varsity glided to a 49-42 win over the Willow Glen basketball team yesterday while the fast-stepping light weights of Campbell tasted a 50-26 defeat from the visitors. Campbell leads in the SCVAL title chase while Willow Glen holds top spot in the senior SPAL league.

Tom Hansen, Campbell center, again demonstrated his scoring ability registering twenty points from seven field goals and six from the free throw line. The Bucs went on a rampage in the third quarter scoring nine points in the first moments of play.

In the light weight tilt, the visitors outclassed the Bucs. Both were practice games.

Service Club Celebrates 25th Year's Work Here

The birth of the Women's Service Club of Campbell organized 25 years ago as 24 young women met at the home of Mrs. E. R. Kennedy to form a club that would combine social pleasures for mothers of small children, and young employed women of the community.

No one realized that 1929 was to see the start of the great depression and Women's Service Club being an independent organization was given the task of handling much of the relief work in the community.

For many years the club provided baskets for needy families, assisted by other people and groups. In the past the club has sponsored worthy high school graduates, made layettes, provided needed school clothing, and were the first to provide dental care and glasses for needy children.

During the worst years of the depression, with the government providing hot minimum meals at school, the service club supplemented dessert once a week.

During the war, the large tables for bandage making were provided by the Campbell Service Club.

The club was a strong supporter of the summer recreation program at school and also sent many young people to various "Y" camps.

Recent activities have been making of needed articles for hospitals, assisting with mailing of TB stamps and for two years have entertained a ward of 90 people at Agnews Hospital at Christmas time with gifts and refreshments.

Perhaps the most outstanding contribution of the Women's Service Club to the cultural life of Campbell has been the annual musicale. Noted artists are brought to Campbell and presented in a program that has attracted people from the entire peninsula.

Besides community service, many things have been added to the Methodist Church, sponsors of the group. The present large stove in the church kitchen is one such gift as is a fine record player used by the youth group and the address-O-graph.

Mrs. Mary Rodeck, granddaughter of Benjamin Campbell was the first president. The club is now limited to 40 active members, six associate members, and four honorary members.

Meetings are held monthly. The current officers are: Mrs. C. T. Mitchell, president; Mrs. H. Y. Rice, first vice-president; Mrs. Norman Pratt, second vice-president; Mrs. George French, secretary; Mrs. W. E. Enoch, treasurer; and Mrs. J. M. Dahl, historian.

Mrs. Ella Haun Passes Away

Mrs. Ella Haun passed away January 20 in a San Jose Hospital. She was the wife of the late George Haun, who had been active in Saratoga affairs. At one time he was Justice of the Peace of Saratoga township and Saratoga Postmaster.

His wife stood faithfully by him all those years.

They had lived at Saratoga avenue, Saratoga. She was a member of the Campbell Seventh Day Adventist Church. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Jennie Wright, a niece, Mrs. Marjorie Rea, and a grandson Glen Rea of San Jose.

Funeral services were conducted at the Rutherford Funeral Home Tuesday, January 22, with Rev. Harold H. Hare, officiating.

Mesdames E. Tremayne, Tom Daugherty, C. Sellards, G. McFadden, and W. Knight will direct the luncheons at the Cambrian Park Methodist church for the newly organized Cambrian Kiwanis Club.

BUCS RISK LEAD IN TILT WITH JAMES LICK FIVE

Campbell High faces tough competition tomorrow night in its drive for the Santa Clara Athletic League basketball title, taking on the James Lick Comets on their court.

A deadlock will be broken with the outcome of this game, both teams now having 3-0 standings in the league.

Campbell, the defending champions, have a slight edge with a well-balanced team and strong reserves. Top scorer in the Buc aggregation is rangy Tom Hansen, All-SCVAL center last year, who upped his season average by scoring 26 points against Mountain View Friday. Tony Schraub, Ken Beth, bulwarks of the forward position, and Dick Jordan and Jon Harris, who man the guard spots are slated to start against the Comets, but coach Bert Robinson said Eric Protiva, transfer student from Iran last year may be called for a starting berth in tomorrow's game.

Protiva said he had never played basketball indoors before he came to America. In Iran, he said, the game is played outdoors where one must learn to use "English" to counteract the effect of the wind. Robinson said it evidently made for good ball handling, because Protiva rapidly got the "hang" of the American type play, and has been improving at a rapid rate all season.

Newcomers

Jeffery Alan and Janet Alane Spedding, welcomed by proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spedding of 14672 Nelson Way on January 8, hold the distinction of being the first twins to be born in Cambrian Park for the New Year.

Jeffery weighed in at 4 lbs. 11 oz. and Janet 4 lbs 15 oz. Welcoming the twins at the Spedding residence were sister Donna, 10, and Mitchell, 6.

Also welcoming twins was the Nick Radunich family of 575 Sweetbriar Drive with the arrival of Susan Elizabeth, 4 lbs. 4 oz and Steven Paul, 4 lbs 1 oz, on January 5.

Susan and Steven will join Robert, 4, and Ronald, 2. Incidentally, the Radunich babies were the first twins to be born at O'Connors for 1954.

Civic Leaders Give Annexation Ideas

dustury and commercial development to residential area. They are in balance he says.

William B. Enoch:
Secretary of Campbell Chamber of Commerce, auditor, and accountant agreed with Mayor Morton that it would be economically inadvisable for Campbell to annex Cambrian Park because of the proportion of industry and residential area as a tax basis. There must be a favorable distribution of industry and residential area, as there is in the newly-incorporated city of Milpitas with its $4,000,000 Ford Assembly plant and its relatively tiny residential population before a city can consider itself well off, Enoch said.

Personally though, Enoch said he would like to see Cambrian Park come into the Campbell area, and agrees with councilman Joseph V. Gomes, that intervening area along the San Jose-Los Gatos Road be included, and he said he would be willing to pay more taxes if it came about.

Enoch's main reason to want Cambrian Park annexed to Campbell is to keep San Jose from grabbing it, which would put Campbell at San Jose's back door, making Campbell a fringe area of greater San Jose.

And you can be sure that our taxes would be raised if Campbell were to annex Cambrian Park, he said. The City of Campbell would have to foot the bill for street repairs which includes practically every street in the area. The resultant tax income from the area would not begin to pay for fire, police, and other services which the city would be obliged to deliver.

Joseph V. Gomes, city councilman said he thought it might be a good idea if Campbell annexed Cambrian Park, but only if all contiguous territory between Campbell and Cambrian Park including the Cambrian District, came in as one big hunk to make a larger well-rounded city. He agreed that Campbell's expenses would jump even more than the expected income. He said he thought that no matter to whom Cambrian Park annexed, the residents would have to pay for their own road upkeep, which everyone, including the residents of the area themselves, agreed is of prime importance.

The school situation, too, is one that must be considered, Gomes said. He thinks that since the Cambrian Park area is the Campbell Union High School District, it would make for an awkward situation if Cambrian Park annexed to either Los Gatos or San Jose. He thought that the Allen Bill only applied to so called uninhabited territory (where there is less than 12 registered voters per square mile). Since Cambrian Park is populated, he thought the residents themselves would have a choice as to which High School District they wished to belong.

Mothers' Guild To Meet Tuesday

St. Lucy's Mother's Guild will meet next Tuesday, February 2, to discuss membership and ways to increase it. It was suggested that a statue be presented to the school grade with the highest representation of members at Guild meetings, to be kept in the schoolroom until the next Guild meeting.

Chairman of Tuesday's meeting, Mrs. Jerry O'Brien, said refreshments will be served by second grade mothers headed by Mrs. Frank J. Callahan.

A bake sale will be held Sunday in front of St. Lucy's Church on Rincon avenue at Third street, it was announced. Mrs. Jerry O'Brien is in charge of the sale, assisted by Mesdames Leroy Howell, Lyle Struss, Norbert Weslow, Frank J. Callahan, Odes Walton, and Edwin Grossheider.

Mr. and Mrs. FRED CLARK have had as recent house guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. ULLOM of Flandreau, South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. WARREN MILLER and ROBERT MILLER of Oakland are to be dinner guests this Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Feasel on Rincon

Creameries Merge; To Retain Name Of Meadow Gold

Mission Creameries, distributors of milk in this area for 25 years, is changing its name to Meadow Gold. Though the merger of the Mission and Meadow Gold brands was effective August 1, the change of name was delayed by the recent strike, which prevented delivery of new milk cartons.

Mr. Dudley H. Dorman, General Manager of the dairy, announced, "Our affiliation with Meadow Gold will enable us to pass on to our customers the benefits of continuing, large-scale research on production, quality control and other aspects of the dairy business."

One of the benefits already realized from the affiliation was the loan of a milk carton machine, shipped to Mission during the recent shortage from Pittsburgh, Pa., in order to maintain the supply of milk to its customers.

Mr. Dorman said that a large-scale advertising campaign throughout Mission's entire distribution area, using newspapers, radio, television and outdoor posters, will tell of the change. While the entire line of dairy products will change its name, Meadow Gold's milk supply will continue to be obtained from the same counties in which it is sold and will be processed at the same plants.

ADVENTISTS WILL SIGN PLEDGE HERE

Members of the Campbell Seventh Day Adventist Church will go to their Sabbath morning worship services armed with pens and ink Saturday, January 30, to participate in a temperance pledge signing ceremony, according to Pastor Harold H. Hare.

All members of the local church have been asked to sign pledges of total abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages in any form, as the beginning of the denomination's 1954 drive to rouse public opinion to the need of placing stricter control on liquor. Gordon Greene, church temperance secretary, will be in charge of the ceremony. The event in which the local church is participating is nationwide and is being observed by 3,000 Adventist churches in North America. It represents one of the chief facets of the demonstration's health education program, according to Pastor Hare.

Santa Cruz, the Watsonville Creamery in Watsonville, the Del Monte Dairy in Monterey, and the Moss Rose Dairy in Salinas formed the nucleus of the dairy known today as Mission Creameries. At that time the dairy was called the Protected Milk Products Company, and in 1938 this organization changed to the Mission label.

In 1946 Mission bought the Blanco Dairy in Salinas and in 1947, bought the Standard Milk Company in San Jose.

First Fatality Of Year Occurs At Casey Road Turn

The Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road, almost arrow-straight from Vasona Junction to Casey Road intersection, where it veers sharply to the left as it enters Campbell proper, was the scene of another automobile accident, Sunday, which resulted in the death of Ann Hitt, 30, San Jose newspaper reporter. Her husband, Ben Hitt, newspaper editor, in a San Jose hospital for treatment of shock and lacerations, was the driver of the car which missed the turn, crashed through the guard rail, knocked down several apricot trees and overturned. His condition is not serious.

It was the first auto fatality in the city of the new year, local police said.

Four years ago, Ted Cobrist, son-in-law of the late Calvin Bonnett, was killed in a similar accident at the same location. Last month, December 29, an Oregon

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

"Love" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon read in Christian Science Society, Country Woman's Club House, Campbell Ave., Sunday, January 31. This sermon consists of references from the Bible and correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Among the readings from the Bible will be these verses from Romans: "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (8:38, 39).

Science and Health: "This is the doctrine of Christian Science: that divine Love cannot be deprived of its manifestation, or object; that joy cannot be turned into sorrow, for sorrow is not the master of joy; that good can never produce evil; that matter can never produce mind nor life result in death" (p. 304).
